WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHER

Hello, valuable people!

MY NAME IS ELKAN

Value, what does value or valuable mean to you? For some it means something is irreplaceable, others perceive something valuable to have cost a lot of money, then there are people who want value for their money, as for others valuable means moments that can never again be relived.

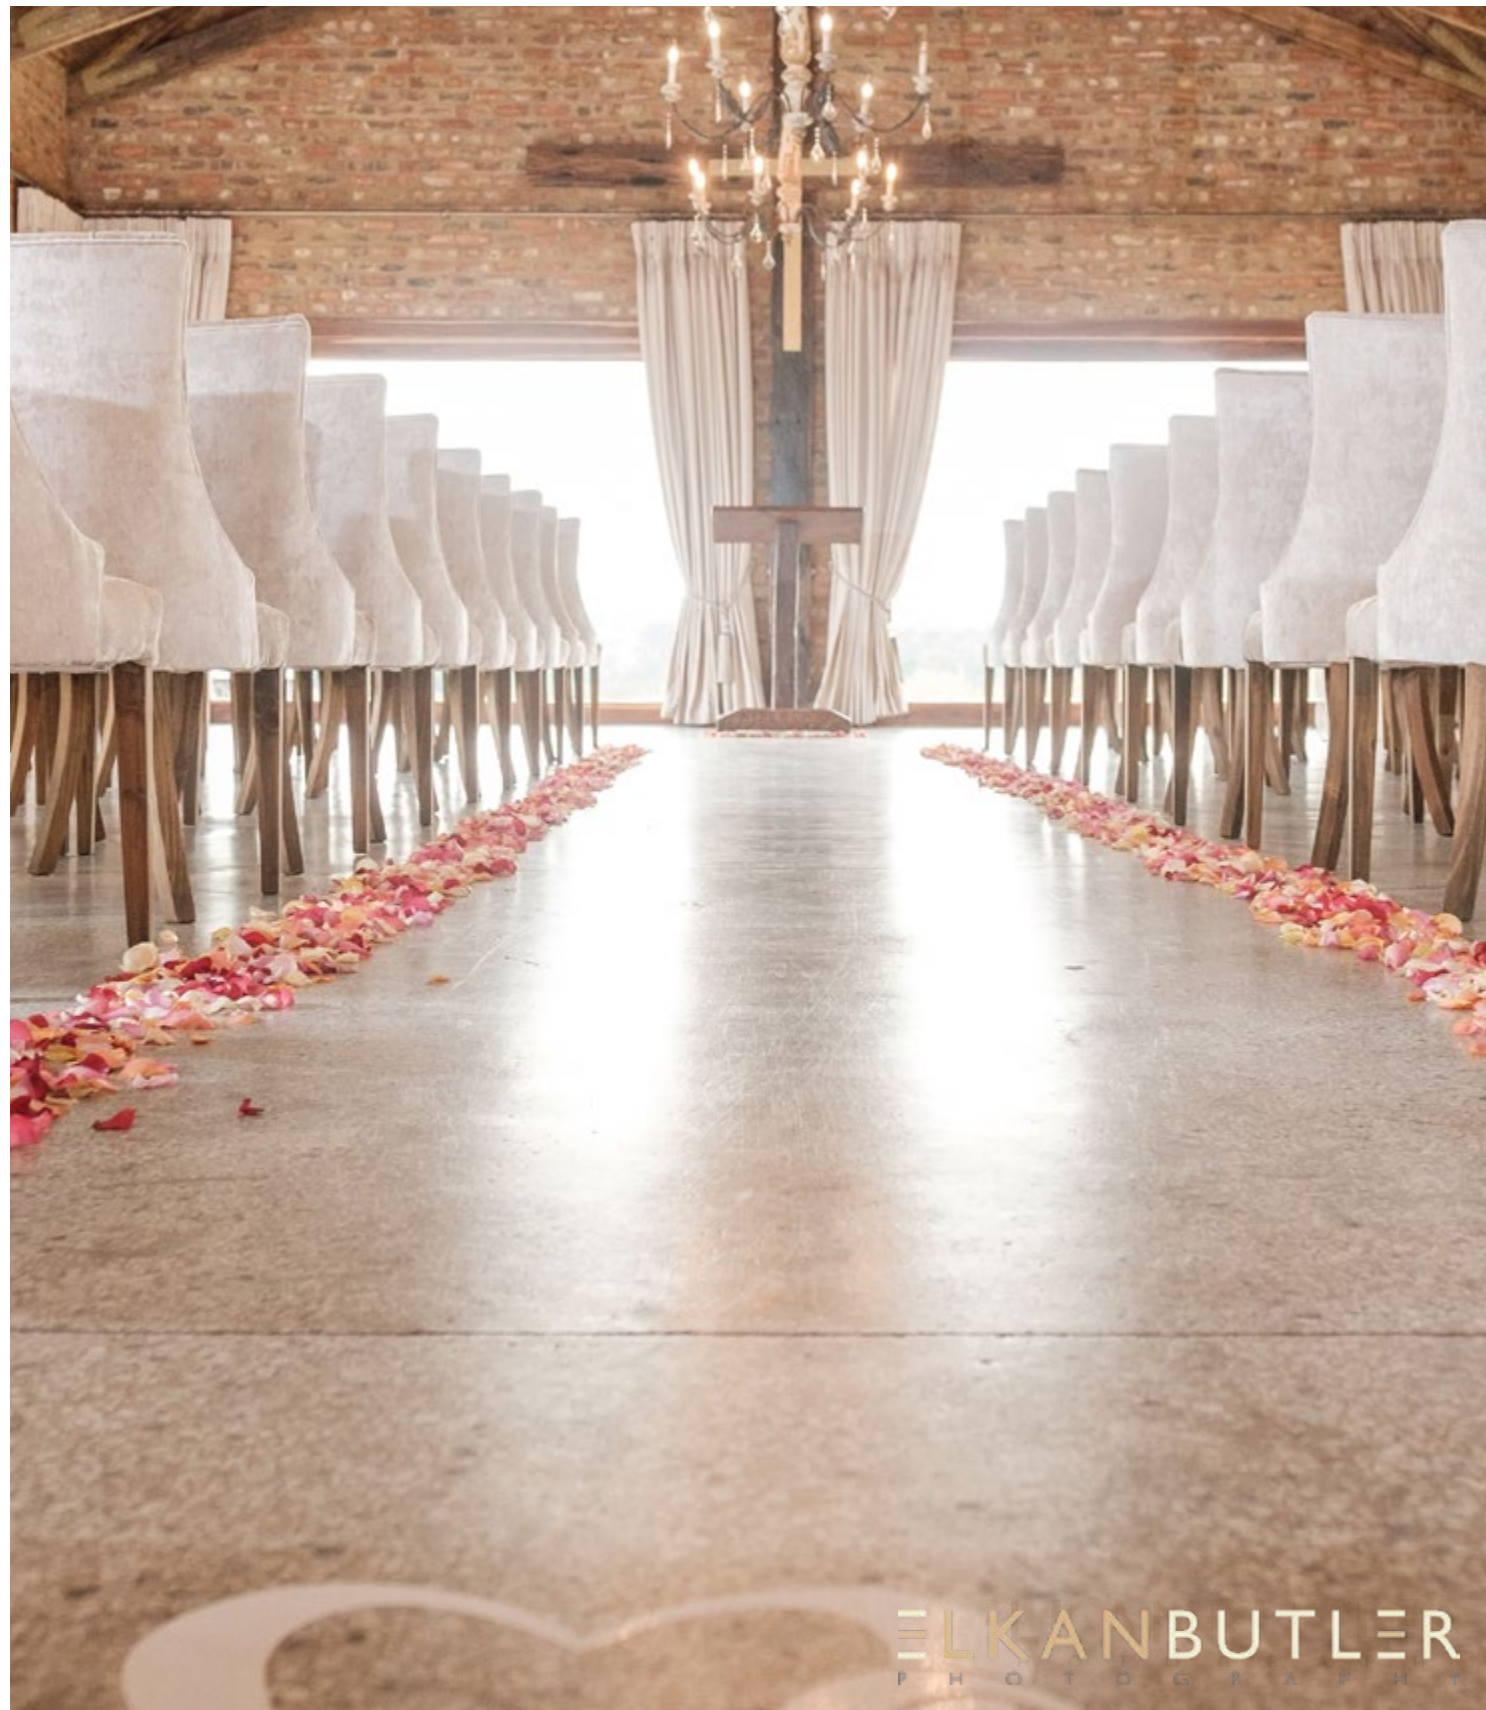

Now for me, a combination of all the above is the ultimate definition of once off moments or rather key moments in your life. Moments that changes your world forever. For me, photography is not just about taking photos or seeing a client as another client. I see every couple as individuals who want to create valuable memories together because they are in love, and love each other, planning a future together.

My ultimate goal is to surprise you with amazing photos that will help you to relive these valuable moments in time forever. Thank you for taking some valuable time to go through this brief summary of my passion and my heart I am sharing with you.
